LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR FINCH WILL BE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

California's Lieutenant Governor Robert H. Finch will deliver the principal address when nearly sixteen hundred 1967 graduates of Cal Poly receive their diplomas June 1. Announced last week by President Robert E. Kennedy, the lieutenant governor's talk to the college's Class of 1967 will come during its 61st annual Commencement, which is being planned for 1:30 p.m., that day, in Mustang Stadium. Dr. Kennedy said that Finch will be introduced by Chancellor of the California State Colleges Glenn S. Dumke, who has also accepted an invitation to participate in Cal Poly's Commencement activities.

The participation of Dr. Dumke and Lt. Gov. Finch in the Commencement program adds a unique touch of human interest to the event. Chancellor Dumke, who formerly was president of San Francisco State College and a member of the faculty and administrative staff at Occidental College, will be introducing a former student. Finch, who earned his bachelor's degree in political science at Occidental, took several of his courses under Dr. Dumke.

President of Savings and Loan Firm

The lieutenant governor is a native of Arizona. He was born in Tempe in 1925. After completing his undergraduate study at Occidental, he earned his LLB degree at University of Southern California and in 1951 passed the California Bar Examination. Lt. Gov. Finch, who practiced law in Los Angeles and was a member of the firm of Finch, Bell, Duitsman, and Margulis before his election, was also active and successful in the savings and loan, banking, insurance, and mortgage fields. He organized and served as the first president of Palos Verdes Savings and Loan Company from 1956 to 1958.

Finch has also been extremely active in Republican Party affairs. He was editor of the National Young Republicans Federation newspaper in 1948, a GOP candidate for congress in 1952 and 1954, a delegate to the Republican National Conventions of 1948 and 1956, and a member of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee from 1956 to 1958. He was administrative assistant to then-Vice President Richard M. Nixon from 1958 to 1960 and directed Nixon's presidential campaign against John F. Kennedy in 1960.

The lieutenant governor, in addition to being an ex-officio member of the Trustees of the California State Colleges, is a trustee of Occidental College, has been on the advisory commission to the Coro Foundation since 1962, and is on the advisory board of Marymount College. Among his other affiliations are memberships in the American Legion, the California Club, the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and the Town Hall.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY TO ADDRESS STAFF CLUB LUNCHEON

Cal Poly's President Robert E. Kennedy will be the guest speaker for the final luncheon meeting of the year for the Cal Poly Staff Club. The meeting is scheduled for Thursday (June 8), starting at noon, in the Staff Dining Room, and all members of the college faculty and staff are invited to attend.

Present plans call for resumption of the weekly luncheon meeting series with the start of the Fall Quarter in September. Advance notice of the initial luncheon will appear in Staff Bulletin.

REGISTRAR CALLS FOR FACULTY ASSISTANCE

Assistance of members of the college faculty in determining which members of the graduating class have completed requirements for their degrees has been requested by F. Jerald Holley, college registrar. In his memorandum addressed to all members of the faculty, Holley pointed out that only cases of either "E" or "F" grades need be reported and that notice of such grades should be received in his office no later than 12:00 noon, June 16.

He also emphasized that his requested notification is separate from the required IBM card grade report for all students. Since the final list of students who have completed degree requirements must be determined prior to Commencement time, June 17, regular grade cards are not processed until after that time.

Quoted in full, Holley's memorandum reads:

"Each year we have the problem of trying to determine which students do not complete requirements for graduation. At each commencement exercise we award diplomas to students who have not filled all degree requirements. Each member of the instructional staff has been given a list of all the candidates for degrees or certificates. We have requested them to notify the Records Office by 12:00 noon, June 16, if any of the candidates fail any courses. I would like to re-emphasize to the instructional staff that it is extremely important that they make us aware of any "E's" or "F's" given to the candidates.

"I would also like to make the instructional staff aware that turning in their IBM grade cards to the Records Office does not notify us that a candidate has failed a course. We will not process grade cards until after the commencement exercises and, therefore, if we discover any "E's" or "F's" awarded to the candidates, it will be too late to hold their diplomas.

SURGERY PROVES FATAL FOR WIFE OF HARRY SCOTT

Mrs. Ethel Scott, wife of Cal Poly's supervising custodian, Harry Scott, died last week during surgery in the hospital at March Air Force Base near Riverside. Funeral services for Mrs. Scott, who had been ill for a long period of time, were to have been held in Exeter early this week.

DEADLINE FOR ARTICLES APPEARING IN NEXT WEEK'S STAFF BULLETIN IS FRIDAY NOON

OUTSTANDING TEACHERS FOR YEAR TO BE NAMED DURING FACULTY-STAFF COUNCIL MEETING

Cal Poly's outstanding teachers for 1966-67 will be named during the regular meeting of the college Faculty-Staff Council being planned for next Tuesday (June 13) morning, according to information received from a council spokesman last week. The meeting, which is scheduled for 10:30 a.m., that day, will take place in the Staff Dining Room.

In addition to presentation of the Outstanding Teacher Awards by Academic Vice President Dale W. Andrews, Corwin Johnson, newly-elected chairman of the council and head of the Crops Department, will assume his duties during the meeting. All members of the college faculty and staff are invited to attend the meeting and join in congratulating winners of the Outstanding Teacher Awards.

COL. BAUER, SCHOOL OF APPLIED SCIENCES WIN TOP GOLF TOURNEY HONORS

Col. Elmer Bauer, head of the Military Science Department, and the four-man team which represented the School of Applied Sciences walked off with the top honors at the annual Spring Golf Tournament of the Cal Poly Staff Club, which was held at the Black Lake Golf Course, near Nipomo, Memorial Day.

Col. Bauer shot a record-breaking 75 to wrest the Culbertson Trophy for the best gross score from Milo E. Whitson, head of the Mathematics Department. They joined with Oswald Falkenstern and Allen Miller, both members of the Mathematics Department faculty, to win the competition between the schools and divisions. Dr. Whitson carded a 77 and Falkenstern and Dr. Miller were in at 84 and 85, respectively, for a team total of 321. The Administration-Staff team was close behind at 331.

Other big winners during the annual spring tourney were Donald S. Nelson, business manager for the college, who shot a best net score (Calloway handicap) of 71, and George Beatie, coordinator of special services, and Allan Zollars of the Aeronautical Engineering Department faculty, who shot 91's to be named "Mr. Mean Gross" of the competition.

Still remaining after all the "fore's" and divots of the tournament, according to William Armentrout, chairman of the Staff Club's Gold Committee, is a lost golf cap inscribed "SLOCC Invitational 1964." Its owner may claim it by contacting Armentrout, who is a member of the Education Department's faculty.

MEETING OF S E R S BOARD SLATED FOR FRIDAY

Two principal matters of interest are on the agenda for the meeting of the Board of Administration of the State Employees' Retirement System, which will take place Friday (June 9), in the First Floor Auditorium of the Resources Building, 1416 Ninth Street, Sacramento. Starting time for the meeting, to which members of SERS are invited, is 9:00 a.m.

Among the matters which will be discussed during the meeting are a review of legislation affecting state employees and their retirement programs and consideration of regulation on termination procedures under Old Age and Survivors Disability Insurance (Social Security) for local public agencies.

DINNER HONORING RALPH E. WESTON SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY EVENING

Friday (June 9) evening will find many friends of Ralph E. Weston on hand at the Golden Tee Motor Hotel, Morro Bay, to honor the retiring member of the Mathematics Department faculty on completion of more than 40 years as an instructor of mathematics. The dinner is scheduled for 7:00 p.m.

All of Weston's friends on the college faculty and staff, as well as their wives, are invited to attend the dinner, which will also recognize his having completed 19 years as a member of the college faculty. Tickets for the affair, which are priced at $4.25 per person, may be purchased through tomorrow (Wednesday, June 7) from Mrs. Margaret Betts, who is secretary in the Mathematics Department.

RETURN OF A-V EQUIPMENT FOR MAINTENANCE AND INVENTORY REQUESTED

Departments and members of the faculty and staff who have checked out equipment from the Audio-Visual Department are being asked to arrange for its return to the department next week. The request from Marcus Gold, who is in charge of the department's Service Office, is to facilitate the equipment maintenance and inventory program.

Gold's request, which was issued last week, reads:

"The Audio-Visual Department is now getting ready for its summer maintenance program and quarterly inventory of equipment. It would greatly facilitate the program if departments and members of the staff that have borrowed audio-visual equipment would make arrangements to return it during the week of June 12-16. If the equipment will be needed during the Summer Quarter or Summer Sessions, it can be given priority and again made available at the earliest possible time. Pick up of equipment may be arranged by calling 546-2211 anytime between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Give location and types of equipment with identifying AV equipment numbers.

A B M STUDENT NAMED OUTSTANDING SENIOR IN SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Michael A. Gatzman, who will graduate later this month, has been named the outstanding senior in the School of Agriculture. An agricultural business management major and resident of Oakdale, he was chosen for the honor on the combined basis of scholarship, leadership and activities, and character and endeavor.

Gatzman, who has been active in a variety of groups and events, has won several scholarships. He has maintained a consistently high academic record, being named to the Deans' and President's Lists and the School of Agriculture's outstanding second-year student in 1964-65.

In recognition of his having been selected the college's top senior agriculture student, Gatzman received the Carl G. Beck Award. The award, made possible by Beck, a veteran member of the Cal Poly faculty who retired in 1963, is an engraved gold wrist watch. The winner's name is also appropriately engraved on a perpetual trophy. The competition which names the outstanding senior in the agriculture school is sponsored by the campus chapter of Alpha Zeta national agriculture honor society.

ELECTRONIC ENGINEERING MAJOR NAMED WINNER OF HAMILTON WATCH AWARD FOR 1966-67

Wallis V. McPherson, a senior majoring in electronic engineering, has been named to receive the 1967 Hamilton Watch Award, an annual honor presented to a member of the graduating class. He will receive the award, a gold engraved watch presented by the Hamilton Watch Company of Lancaster, Pa., during the graduating class' Senior Breakfast, which is being planned for the morning of June 17, and will receive his Bachelor of Science Degree during Commencement ceremonies that afternoon.

The honor annually goes to the college's candidate for the BS degree who has most successfully combined proficiency in his major field of study with achievements, either academic or co-curricular, in the social sciences or the humanities.

McPherson, 21, has a 3.47 grade point average and has been a member of the campus chapter of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers since he entered the college in September, 1963. He is currently editor of Poly Syllables, Cal Poly's campus literary magazine.

CAL POLY WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES ANNOUNCED

A general meeting of its membership and a meeting of its Walking Group were announced on the calendar of activities released last week by the Cal Poly Women's Club. Also announced at the same time was the fact that the $4.00 membership dues for 1967-68 can now be paid. Members who wish to pay their dues now may do so by forwarding the checks, made out to "Cal Poly Women's Club," to Mrs. Roger Bailey, 80 Verde Drive, San Luis Obispo.

General Meeting -- A Patio Coffee hosted by the 1966 Board of Directors is being planned for the General Meeting of membership of the CPWC, which is scheduled for next Tuesday (June 13) morning, starting at 10:00 a.m., in the Patio of Dexter Memorial Library. Topics of interest, which will be discussed during the meeting, will be the proposed revision of the club's by-laws and the budget for 1967-68. Dues for 1967-68 may also be paid during the meeting.

Walking Group -- Members of women's club's Walking Group will gather at 9:00 a.m. in the parking lot of the Williams Brothers Market on Lower Higuera Street, San Luis Obispo, to begin their meeting being their meeting being planned for next Tuesday (June 13) morning. They will drive to Avila Beach for a walk along the water front.

HOME ECONOMICS STUDENTS WIN HONORS

Three students of the campus Home Economics Department have been named to receive $200 scholarships for 1967-68 from the California Dietetics Association, according to information released last week by Mrs. Marie Pfeiffer, head of the department. All third-year students who have chosen food administration as their option field, they are Karen Berlin of Santa Cruz, Elizabeth Ann Tucker of Palos Verdes, and Susan J. Wilson of Woodland Hills.

Announced by Dr. Pfeiffer at the same time was the fact that four other young women, all recent graduates or current students of the Home Economics Department, had been accepted for fifth-year internships in dietetics at universities located throughout the nation. Mrs. Cynthia Lynch Osborne of Fresno is scheduled to intern at University of Washington; Mrs. Mary Gohler Middlecamp of Livermore, at University of Iowa; Patricia Holta of Orange, at University of Minnesota; and Linda Williams of Bishop, at University of California Medical Center, San Francisco.

"STAFF BULLETIN" PREPARES FOR CONCLUSION OF 18TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

Next week's Staff Bulletin, which will be dated June 13, will be the final issue of the 18th year of publication for the bulletin and comes as plans for the 19th year are being made. Present plans call for publication of editions during the summer on an irregular basis with regular publication to begin with the issue of September 19.

With exception of the September 19 edition, holidays, and other specific occasions when advance announcement is made, deadlines for articles intended for use in the bulletin will continue to be noon on the Friday before the Tuesday publication date. Deadline for the September 19 issue will be noon, September 13.

VIETNAMESE EDUCATORS VISIT CAMPUS

Four agricultural educators from Vietnam, who arrived yesterday (Monday, June 5), have begun a 10-day study and observation visit of Cal Poly's School of Agriculture. The group, which is scheduled to be on campus through June 14, was greeted by J. Corder Gibson, acting dean of agriculture, and President Robert E. Kennedy, and spent the rest of the day, yesterday, becoming acquainted with the Cal Poly Foundation and the college Audio Visual Department and its Instructional Materials Program.

Also planned during the Vietnamese educators' visit are visits of the Animal Husbandry, Crops, Poultry Industry, Agricultural Engineering, Agricultural Education, and Food Processing Departments, and a tour of the agriculture departments of nearby high schools.

Members of the touring group are Do Cao Tho, assistant to the director of Vietnam's agricultural education program; Nguyen Thanh Van, director of courses at Bao Loc Vocational Agriculture Secondary School, Dam Bong; Le Quan Hong, school farm manager at Can Tho Agricultural School; and Du Thanh Nghiep, chief of the Bureau of Instructional Materials of Vietnam's Directorate of Agricultural Education.

Their stay on campus is the final phase of a two-month-long visit to the United States which began in mid-April. It is under the joint sponsorship of the US Department of Agriculture and the Department of State's Agency for International Development. Other colleges and universities visited by the Vietnamese group since its arrival in the US include University of Florida and Texas A and M University.

DETAILS OF SUMMER SWIMMING PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Information concerning arrangements for the campus swimming program during the summer were announced recently by Dr. Robert A. Mott, head of the Physical Education Department, who said the program would begin June 21 and conclude July 28. Stuart Chestnut, a member of that department's faculty, will be in charge of the program, which will be staffed by student instructors and life guards who are physical education majors.

Sign-up for the program, which will be open to children of members of the student body, faculty, and staff, will be from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, June 21. The program is planned to offer instructional classes in the mornings, Monday through Thursday, and recreational swimming from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. All activities of the program will take place in the Natatorium.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Rey Lonborg, Crops, received a certificate of award and an engraved trophy from the Babe Ruth League of San Luis Obispo recently. The awards were in recognition of his many years of service to the youth baseball organization. Lonborg, who has been player representative for the local league for several years, is the father of Jim Lonborg, a member of the professional Boston Red Sox baseball team and currently one of the American League's top pitchers.

Ronald V. Ratcliffe, Music, will perform as a guest soloist with the Kern Philharmonic Orchestra of Bakersfield next January. Announced recently by Fred Dukes, president of the Kern Philharmonic Society, the performances by Ratcliffe, who is a pianist and harpsichordist, will be at children's and community concerts which are being planned for January 21 and 22, respectively, in Bakersfield.

Bernice Loughran, Education, has been elected secretary of the California Art Education Association in recent statewide balloting by members of that association. Dr. Loughran, a member of the Cal Poly faculty since 1958, will serve a two-year term as the group's president.

David A. Cook, curriculum coordinator, is a member of a string trio which has been using its lunch hours to give a series of brief concerts for elementary school children of the San Luis Coastal Unified School District. Other members of the trio are Mrs. Donna Weiss, who plays the violin, and Mrs. Irvin Kogan, who plays the cello and is the wife of Irvin Kogan of the Electronic Engineering Department faculty. Cook plays the viola.

John Healey, head of Technical Journalism; Vincent Gates, also Technical Journalism; and Donald McCaleb, coordinator of public relations, all received special recognition during the meeting of the California Central Coast Professional Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi national professional journalism society held in San Luis Obispo last week. Healey, who had been vice president of the chapter last year, was elected president of the chapter, which includes members from Santa Barbara, Ventura, and San Luis Obispo Counties. Gates and McCaleb were among 24 new members initiated. Speaker for the meeting was Cal Poly President Robert E. Kennedy.
